WHEREAS the new street off of the Stratford Road adjacent to the CGI Building was named Shepard Drive to honour the family of David Shepard and Kesiah Wilson who resided in Stratford and whose descendants constitute more than fifty percent of the Black community of PEI today; and

WHEREAS it was brought to our attention by local historian Jim Hornby that the original spelling of the Sheppard name was with two p's; and

WHEREAS the Black Island Cooperative and the Heritage Committee were consulted and agree that we should spell the street name with two p's.

BE IT RESOLVED that the spelling of the street name be changed to Sheppard Drive.
